SWADES · APNE DESH KA SWAAD

Our Story

Where Dubai has come home to eat since 1987

Al Fahidi (Bastakiya), old Dubai

★ AS FEATURED IN GULF NEWS

From kitchen porter to restaurateur: the journey behind Swades.

Our founder, Jagdishbhai Thanki, grew up in a farming family in Sukhpur, Gujarat. At 18 he left school and boarded a ship from Bombay. Seven days later, after a stop in Karachi, he stepped onto the dock at Port Rashid.

He started at the bottom, as a kitchen porter. In old Bastakiya he and his team cooked for the Indian workers who were building the city, and they came back for the taste of home.

More than 40 years later, Gulf News told his story of hard work and humility, and of how the boy from Sukhpur built one of Dubai's best-loved vegetarian names. Swades means "one's own country", and that is what we serve: Gujarati home food, South Indian dosa, Punjabi kulcha and Mumbai chaat.
